Furry Family's Circus - - —By Harry W. Frees

(Copyright, 1935, Star Newspaper Service)

'Ware the Burglar!

Dog Burglars! Yes, they really are. They're dogs of many crimes.
And every night they start to rob as soon as midnight chimes.
They've heard of Mrs. Furry's rings, poor Mrs. Furry's pride;
They know that Mrs. Furry sleeps with windows open wide.
They do not know, I'm glad to say for Mrs. Furry's sake,
That Mr. Furry—with a stick—is very wide awake!

Party Aboard 'Normandie' Is Heard Tonight

Continuing a ship-to-shore series of relays from the giant French liner Normandie, on its maiden voyage to New York City from Le Havre, France, the Columbia network will broadcast a "Gala Night Aboard the Normandie" at 8:30 tonight. Celebrated personalities who are making the trip will take part in the program at sea, among them some of the famous entertainers of the Parisian stage.

Lenore Ulric, noted actress; Bert Larr, comedian, and Tony Canzoneri, lightweight boxing champion, will be heard as guests of Al Jolson, in his variety hour to be heard over NBC-WEAF at 8:30.

Boston Common, the historic 50 acres where Quakers were hanged and where many a civic ceremony was held, is the subject of a new dramatic pageant to be presented over NBC-WJZ and WSYR at 8 tonight. The production will be broadcast from NBC studios in New York, but it is designed to be a part of Boston's celebration marking the tercentenary of Boston Common.

Other program highlights: "Fats" Waller will be co-starred with Richard Himber's orchestra in the Radio City Party program over NBC-WEAF at 8 P. M. . . Joe Cronin, manager and shortstop of the Boston Red Sox, will be a guest of Thornton Fisher in his Sports Parade over NBC-WEAF at 6:45 . . . "Reckless" apparently will be [illegible] "Hit Parade," featuring Lennie Hayton's orchestra, over NBC-WEAF at 7 o'clock.
